

If the green fields are neighbors create normals

If both normals are available create the average normal of them